LIBRARY PROJECT

Library Service To the Homebound

Do you have any spare time during the week to become a Library Outreach Volunteer?

Do you know someone who enjoys reading but is unable to visit the Library because of frailty, illness or disability?

Library Outreach
Volunteers deliver books, large print books and talking books to people who are unable to visit their local Library but still want to read for enjoyment or education.

Many people who use this service are elderly, have very few visitors and no family nearby. Volunteers are encouraged to spend a little extra time for a chat and perhaps a cup of tea during their visit.

To register as a volunteer or find out more contact Anne Donnelly the Project Coordinator at the Gateway.
(address and phone number overleaf)

The Library Outreach Service is run in partnership with West Lothian Library Headquarters and funded by West Lothian Council.
